

REGISTRY DAYS
TO BE HOLIDAYArizona Defence Council
Takes Steps to Overcome
Farm Labor Shortage.

Tucson, Ariz., May 12.—Shortage of seed and labor was considered at a meeting of the Arizona Defence Council, in session here Friday.

Dwight H. Heard, who has just returned from Washington, recommended that seed and land be supplied for increasing the yield of food crops, the plan to be worked out under the supervision of the University of Arizona agriculture experts; that definite steps be taken to procure a labor supply, and that registration day be made a state holiday. Gov. Campbell, who was present, stated that he would by proclamation declare this day a holiday.

Prof. Forbes, of the University, reported serious losses of cattle along the border and the council decided to cooperate with the Southwest Cattle Growers' association to meet this condition.

Douglas Resigns.
Jas. S. Douglas has resigned as chairman of the council's finance committee and has been succeeded by H. S. Beckett, manager of the Old Dominion works at Globe. Judge Frank H. Smith, of Prescott, has gone to the presidio officers' training camp, leaving a vacancy at the head of the law committee, filled by the naming of attorney general Wiley S. James.

GOVERNMENT PREPARING TO MOBILIZE ITS STENOGRAPHERS

Typewriter manufacturers have been called upon by the council for national defense to assist in mobilizing 5000 stenographers, of both sexes, for government service. They will possibly be required in the various Government departments at Washington, but applicants should be willing to serve throughout the United States.

Salaries will possibly range from $15 to $180 per month and if called to Washington, the committee on housing employees will arrange for board and lodging from $25 to $50 per month.

Stenographers called under this enrollment will not find it necessary to pass the civil service examination, although it would be desirable for them to do so whenever possible.

P. R. White, local agent for the Underwood, has received a request from his company to enroll stenographers in El Paso who desire to aid the government.

INCOME TAX LAW IS TO GIVE JOBS TO MANY MEN

A. J. Walker, internal revenue collector for the third district of Texas, writes The Herald that judging from the revenue legislation now pending in congress the force of the internal revenue service may be materially increased at an early date. Probably the greatest increase will be in the income tax field service, he says. Examinations of applicants for these positions are to be held on May 29 at various points in Texas. All persons desiring to take the examination should apply at once to E. H. Jennings, district secretary, civil service commission, New Orleans, and secure the necessary application blank to be used in entering this examination. Things can also secure from him full information as to places at which the examination will be held.

Do Not Hoard Money

THE prosperity of any community was never maintained by hoarding money. This is particularly a time in the history of El Paso when money should be invested and building activity kept up to the El Paso standard.

Use Judgment

OF COURSE you should exercise the best possible judgment in making your investment. With this in mind we ask you to consider

Austin Terrace

THIS restricted residential district offers every inducement to the conservative investor. It is not only the one completely Parked Residence section of El Paso but the building restrictions are such as to protect all classes of residences.

JAPS DECLARE
FRIENDLIESLeaders Assert Japan and United States Have Common Purposes in View.

Tokio, Japan, May 12.—The inaugural dinner of the new American-Japanese society was attended today by 200 members, among whom were many of the most prominent men in Japanese public life. Viscount Kamekura, former minister of justice, presided, and the principal speech was delivered by Baron Goto, former minister of communications, who said:

"There are few questions of such vital moment to the welfare of mankind as the relations of Japan and the United States. The era of world peace promises to surpass that of the Mediterranean or the Atlantic. All the forces of the east and west will meet."

Will Nations Work Together?
"For this reason the relations between Japan and the United States are of supreme importance. With the careful responsibility they owe to mankind, will Japan and the United States work hand in hand or will they turn their backs on each other? I hope the two nations will find principles on which to base abiding relations of mutual trust and confidence."

Terauchi Cites Common Purpose.
Premier Terauchi said that Japan and the United States had never in the history of their intercourse come to such a path as to endanger cordial relationship. He continued:

"By participation of the United States in the war, our interests are strengthened by a community of interest. We are on the eve of joining our resources in chastising a common and obdurate foe in the cause of world peace. The friendly relations of the two countries should be cemented more strongly than ever by the combined efforts of both governments and peoples."

WILL HEAR CASES OF ARMY
MEN WHO WISH CITIZENSHIP

Orders for the holding of naturalization cases on the first Monday of each month in United States court for soldiers of the United States army who desire to become citizens were issued by United States Judge W. R. Smith Saturday. He amended article 27 of the naturalization laws which provide that the hearing in naturalization cases must not be held until 90 days after the petitions are filed.

"In view of the existence of a state of war as it appearing to the court that there is a necessity, it is by the court ordered that article 27 be amended so that petitions for naturalization filed by soldiers of the United States army may be heard on the first Monday of each month at El Paso."

Charles Ziepsky, battery B, Fifth field artillery, has filed an application for first naturalization papers with United States commissioner S. L. Kelly. His hearing will be held on the first Monday of June. The soldier is a native Russian and has served three enlistments in the United States army.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOTS SELF.
John D. Pison, a private in company C, Seventh infantry, accidentally shot himself in the right hand Friday afternoon, while examining a pistol at the Seventh infantry camp, Camp Baker. He was removed to the base hospital, where his wound was treated.

NAVY ASKS TO HELP SAILORSIt Also Helps Their Dependents and Is Strictly Patriotic.

The mass meeting to be held at the chamber of commerce on Monday night for the purpose of organizing an El Paso branch of the Navy League is the first meeting of the kind to be held in this city, and it is expected that El Pasoans will show their usual patriotism and enthusiasm in a large attendance.

The Navy League, after consultation with officials of the navy department, has decided, in the present crisis, to undertake the following program:

1. To assist in recruiting for the naval service.
2. To assist in procuring uniforms in the naval reserve, recently provided for by congress.

3. To assist in procuring needed articles of clothing, equipment, comfort and hospital stores required by the exigencies of the service and at this time not furnished by the government.

4. In the event of war, to undertake to raise and distribute a Navy League relief fund.

To carry out these programs, local branches of the league are being formed in all important places in the country. In this work, the patriotic citizens and citizens are desired and requested.

It is hoped that this patriotic work will be taken up not only by the women who can meet at the clubs and hotels, but that the committees will arrange to put raw materials into the hands of women who are willing to help the navy by doing work for the knitting, sewing and so forth in their own homes," said Mrs. B. J. Jennings, who is working to make the El Paso organization a success.

"When the present war broke out there were Europe a multitude of unexpected cases and causes calling for relief outside usual functions of government. The navy and marine families were unable to join the service without some temporary help. Heads of families could not volunteer for the war, but those dependent on them would not suffer. The relief is to be extended not only to the men of the navy and marine corps, but to their families and dependents, and it is patriotic not charitable."

The league was started 15 years ago by five men, and now has a total membership of 200,000. It is non-partisan, and is open only for the good of the flag. Men, women and children are eligible to membership. The membership fee is $1.00 which includes a handsome pin, or button, of silver, gilt and blue enamel, and a letter, white and anchor of gold.

"The Navy League cooperates to the fullest practicable extent with the Red Cross and the Navy Relief society within the fields they respectively cover."

NAVY GETS 127 RECRUITS
PAST WEEK IN EL PASO

One hundred and twenty recruits out of 127 enlisted at the El Paso recruiting station during the last week have been accepted for the navy, according to the weekly report of the station. The recruits have been forwarded to the training schools at Mare Island, Calif.

A program of recruitment included William Pratt, T. J. Warren, N. S. Roy, J. V. Graves, H. L. Harris, R. E. Huddleston and Sid W. Stephenson.

HEAVY GUNFIRE INDICATES
NEW ATTACK ON ZEEBRUGGE

London, Eng., May 12.—Flashes of light, indicating another aerial attack on Zeebrugge, were observed between 2 and 4 o'clock this morning, a Reuters dispatch from Flushing, Holland, reports.

Later, heavy and continuous gunfire was heard from the west. It was believed a naval engagement was in progress.

JITNE BUS TURNS OVER ON DONIPHAN'S DRIVE; DESERTED

A Ford car bearing license number 2549 "turns turtle" and lodged in the ditch alongside Doniphan's drive, a mile northwest of Courchesne, and remained there, wheels turned skyward Friday night, or Saturday morning, according to J. W. Harn, superintendent of the El Paso Herald newspaper, who said that the car was deserted.

The car bore number 1932. According to the city jitne supervisor's record it belonged to Francisco Ortega, 1706 East Missouri street. The local police and district authorities had information as to possible casualties in the accident.

GOVERNMENT AUCTIONS THINGS
SEIZED AT CUSTOMS OFFICES

Beans, alcohol, drawback and numerous other articles valued at several hundred dollars, which have been seized by the United States customs authorities at the El Paso customs port during the last year were sold at auction Saturday morning at a government sale held in the rear of the federal building by Walter Williams.

War At A Glance

TILLING blows were struck by the British at the Hindenburg line last night and early today.

PARADE, LUNCHEON AND WEL-COME AT STATE HOUSE ARE Features of Day.

Boston, Mass., May 12.—When the French mission accompanied him arrived from New York today they were met with the greatest display of flags ever seen in this city. The reception committee was headed by mayor Curley and among its members was President A. W. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard.

The afternoon parade was the central feature of the day. Before this, however, came a visit of the envoys to the state house for presentation to Gov. Mahan to the legislature in joint session. A luncheon tendered by the city at Faneuil hall followed.

The climax of the parade was the presentation to Marshal Joffre of more than $100,000, contributed by New England citizens, and the support of fatherless children in France.

Brilliant Banquet in New York.
New York, May 12.—One of the most brilliant banquets in the history of America was given here last night in honor of the British and French envoys.

The guests included Arthur James Balfour, British foreign minister; Rene Viviani, French minister of justice; Marshal Joffre and two former presidents of the United States—Woodrow Wilson and William Taft. The streets on all sides of the hotel were packed with men and women.

Fifth Avenue A Sea of Flags.
Confined in electric lights upon the roof of the hotel, the flags of the three nations while far up and down Fifth avenue a sea of flags floating over the city. The patriotic citizens who jammed the sidewalks on both sides for a mile and a half.

The members of the mission escorted first to the great ball room where a great reception was held and then to the grand banquet hall.

Stretched across one end of the banquet hall was a great curtain of golden blue, in the center of which the American flag, flanked by the colors of France and England and with the flags of other allies surrounding them. Below the flags was a copy of a medalion representing the world's war.

At the close of the banquet mayor Mitchell presented to Mr. Balfour and Mr. Viviani gold medals emblematic of their visit to New York. The mayor then invited the envoys to the city of the United States. The diners rose, cheering, and throwing flowers to the envoys. The orchestra played "The Star Spangled Banner." The mayor then toasted the French envoys with the words: "To the French Republic, which has been the source of the world's freedom and the source of the world's civilization."

Chateaux Allies.
Joseph H. Choate, who followed the mayor, referred to those dear allies of ours, Great Britain, our beloved mother country, and France, our fascinating, hypnotizing sister.

Mr. Balfour moved his benches to high enthusiasm when he said: "We have not come here as instructors of the American people, but as a civilization must rise up and voice its appeal for the preservation of human liberty."
